

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Date: 18/12/2017
Page No: 04

Entrepreneurs' meet a hit among students

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Visakhapatnam: It is important to translate an idea into action and start somewhere to break the initial inertia while beginning a journey, said, Arun Kumar, CEO and Founder, Xenture Technologies Pvt. Ltd. He was speaking at the annual entrepreneurship summit of IIM-Visakhapatnam Exordia 2017 in Visakhapatnam on Sunday.

The event began with successful entrepreneurs sharing their experience. The summit was held with a motive of connecting budding entrepreneurs across the nation and encouraging students to come up with innovative ideas. Founder and CEO, Play2Transform, Avinash Jhangiani, spoke about the rapidly changing trends and how 'design thinking' is going to revolutionise the world.

Students of Gitam University, MVGR college of engineering and IIM Visakhapatnam participated in the meet.