

Entrepreneurs share experiences

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT VISAKHAPATNAM

The annual two-day entrepreneurship summit of IIM Visakhapatnam -Exordia -- concluded here on Sunday. The summit was held with the motive of connecting the budding entrepreneurs across the nation and encouraging the innovative ideas from the student community.

The two-day event began with successful entrepreneurs sharing their journeys. Speaking about his entrepreneurial journey, Arun Kumar, CEO and founder, Xenture Technologies Pvt. Ltd. stressed on the importance of translating an idea into action and how essential it is to start somewhere to break the initial inertia while beginning a journey. Avinash Jhangiani, founder & CEO, Play2Transform, spoke about the importance of transforming from working seriously to playing with a child-like creativity.

In an engaging and interactive session, he talked about the rapidly changing trends.